

Following discussions between the Board and Neil Clapperton, the Chief Executive, on the future direction of the Association, it has been mutually agreed that it is the appropriate time for Neil to move onto new opportunities. The Board wishes Neil all the best for his future and thanks him for his hard work and his support for Lochalsh and Skye Housing Association during his time as Chief Executive.

Neil will be leaving his employment with the Association on the 29th February 2024.

To assist the Board and the staff through the transition period before the appointment of a permanent Chief Executive, the Board has appointed Alastair MacGregor as the Interim Chief Executive. He will be in post from 6th March 2024.

"Alastair has worked in the community based housing sector since 1986. He started his housing career with Linthouse Housing Association in Glasgow moving to Queens Cross Housing Association in the same city where he was Chief Executive for 15 years. He moved to take up the Chief Executives role with Argyll Community Housing Association in 2005, where he remained until 2022. During his housing career, Alastair served on the boards of a number of housing bodies including the Glasgow Housing Association and the Scottish Federation of Housing Associations. Alastair lives in Glencruitten, near Oban in Argyll, where he is a Crofter."
